A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I was interested to see the exhibition held in the Church centre on Friday 2nd March showing the plans and model of the new Church building. I understand from Mr. Belsham (South Cambs. Planning Dept.) that planning permission was sought three years ago and consent to the final design was granted on 6th December 1989.

When the first two phases of the building are complete the Church, with a ramp for the disabled, will come to the edge of the spine path next to the Health Centre, to the edge of the path running down to the play equipment (where the rose bushes are at present) and to the edge of the school playground's fencing. To make way for the building the large conifers will be felled, and the rose bushes and trees removed. Work is due to start this autumn and will take about nine months to complete.

James Newcome assures me that large plants will be grown against the walls of the new building as it will need 'softening', and that the Church will liaise with the Parish Council to plant trees opposite the building on the Village Green.

While appreciating the need for a larger Church, and the fact that the present site is the only one available, it seems very sad that the centre of Bar Hill will soon be filled with a building designed to be as large and cheap as possible with secondary consideration given to its aesthetic value or the destruction of the surrounding landscape.

Bobby Colver (6 Partridge Drive)

SUCCESS STORY

Now in its fourth month since opening, Bar Hill Library appears to have established itself well as a much needed community amenity and must be a source of satisfaction to those who campaigned (councillors, residents and librarians) for so many years previously.

Clearly in declaring the building open last December, the Chairman of the Cambridgeshire County Council, Councillor Jane Brookes, was delighted to do so and confessed envy that the locality in which she lives does not enjoy such a facility.

Something like 2,000 readers have been enrolled since last November - the majority from within the village and it is particularly encouraging that a goodly proportion are children, supported so well by parents ready and willing to stimulate and share with the children their own personal love of books and reading.

Further enthusiastic support of course, is given by Roger Kilsby, Dorothy Betts and their staff at the Primary School; and it provided many happy occasions to welcome every class into the Library during the School's Book Week last January.

From comments and observations there appears to be much general satisfaction and appreciation of the Library's facilities. Stock in all classes seems adequate, but where 'gaps' have been identified, they have been noted and additional items obtained.

The Library Supervisor, Mrs. Linda Barker and her staff are becoming well known to all users, with their constant aim to give ready service in book provision and information. To this end suggestions (or criticisms) are welcomed and if practical will be positively acted upon.

FINALLY, AN APPEAL The days of public libraries being festooned with notices announcing "Silence is requested", have passed. But when the arrangement of the building is Open Plan as at Bar Hill, there can occur undue distraction to those readers quietly making their choice of books or studying, if the boisterous enthusiasm of our younger readers (particularly on the popular train), is not effectively considered and checked by their parents.

R. J. TARRANT, (Senior Librarian, Retiring)

LITTER BUSTERS

Cambridgeshire Conservative Association) for the posts of the President, Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Treasurer and members of the Executive Committee should be received by Mrs. J.A. Hall, 11 Almond Grove (780304) by Monday, April 2nd.

The Bar Hill CPC (Conservative Political Centre) discussion group for April will be on the subject of Britain and the European Committee. The meeting, open to both members and Conservative supporters, will be held at 11 Almond Grove on April 26th at 8.00 p.m.

DISTRICT COUNCIL ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD ON THURSDAY, MAY 3rd AT BAR HILL CHURCH CENTRE.

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

Will all members please note that the April meeting will not be held on the usual second Thursday of the month. Instead it will be on Wednesday, 18th April at 7.30 p.m. in the Farmhouse.

It is a year since we started our games nights and these have proved both enjoyable and successful. The first one was a Darts match when our Visitors and opponents were the U.I. Darts team. So appropriately we have invited them to come again and the game will take place on Thursday 26th April, 8 p.m. at the Farmhouse.

TOY LIBRARY

This is an URGENT APPEAL to anyone who is able to join the Toy Library committee. At least 8 members are needed.

The present committee have done a marvellous job in keeping the Toy Library open for another year, but the time has come to form a new committee.

We have managed to raise a considerable amount of money this year to be spent on new toys, but we will not do so until we are sure that the toy Library will continue.

PLEASE contact me immediately if you are able to help.

If a new committee is not formed by the end of April, the toy Library in BAR HILL will CEASE TO BE AND ALL OF OUR TOYS WILL HAVE TO BE GIVEN TO ANOTHER TOY LIBRARY.

Please do not make this necessary. PHONE me now on 782081

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

We write as mothers of children due to start school in September at the age of 4 years 5 months. As children do not legally have to attend school until the term after their 5th birthday and, as we believe that children are not ready (emotionally or intellectually) for formal education until they are really rising 5, we are not in fact sending our daughters and son until January 1991.

We have had many conversations in recent months with other parents of children in the same age bracket and would like to say, through the pages of Bar Hill News, that if anyone else would like to get in touch with us to discuss the issues involved or to have copies of relevant literature we have available please feel free to do so.

BAR HILL PRE-SCHOOL PLAYGROUP

Bar Hill Pre-School Playgroup accepts children from 3 years until school age. It is a friendly and happy place where the children can play, learn and make new friends.

There are two rooms in which the children can play; one room we call our messy room with sand, water, cutting out, paints, play dough and glue and our other room for games, puzzles and dressing up clothes.

If you would like your child to join our playgroup, please come along to one of our sessions and feel free to look around and see what we do or contact Ann Martin on 782096.

Session times are: Mornings 9.15am - 11.45am, Mondays to Fridays
Afternoons 1.00pm - 3.30pm, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday
We look forward to seeing you.

HAPPY HOURS

Membership We now have over 70 registered with the club and the average number attending each Monday is 50. The committee are delighted with the progress we are making - we are certainly going from strength to strength; each week new members are joining, so if you would like to make new friends, happy to join in our games, enjoy our lunch time snacks (at low cost) then come along, we will soon make you feel at home. If you are unable to get to us because of medical problems then ring 781124, we will come and get you.

Entertainment Each week we do endeavour to give you either an interesting speaker (not always?) or play bingo, scrabble, table tennis, cards, in fact the choice is yours. During March we were fortunate in enticing the Mayor and Mayoress of Cambridge to visit us; a really most delightful couple - they have invited us to visit them for tea in the Mayor's parlour! and to have a conducted tour of the Guildhall. We have certainly had a range of varied speakers, the subjects covered were Hypnotic Therapy, Overseas Travel (India), a talk on the blind, welfare of the Royal British Legion and other interesting subjects. During April (possibly the 23rd) we hope to have Lucy Scott for an "Antique Roadshow", so please dig out your old treasure and bring them along for valuation - if you require assistance i.e. a car lift, please let us know.

Future Events

1. Tuesday April 3rd - We are taking a party to the Cambridge Corn Exchange (7.30pm) to listen to the Band of the Blues and Royals (Royal Horse Guards and 1st Dragoons)
2. A weeks holiday has been arranged for the week 19 - 26 May at the Kessingland Beach Holiday Village, Lowestoft. 18 of us will be going in members cars.
3. We are in the process of arranging coach day trips for the coming summer months - we will keep you posted as we go along.
4. Village Fete - this will be held on Saturday 30th June. As you know every group or society in Bar Hill have their own stall i.e. Women's Institute, British Legion etc. As a newly formed club this year we have been invited to participate - how about it? It doesn't require anything strenuous it really is a question of organisation. Think about it and bring your ideas to the next Monday meeting. We are sure that with the talented bright sparks we have in the club it could only be successful.

Meeting There will be NO meeting on Monday 16th April - it's Easter.

Vandalism Unfortunately we are getting so many complaints about the vandals in Bar Hill. It appears that the nonsensical destruction and pilfering of garden ornaments, throwing Tesco's trolleys into gardens, creating havoc especially late at night in the Manover estates is indeed very worrying to the elderly. IT HAS GOT TO STOP. The Parish Council are repeatedly reminded of the various incidents that do occur so something must be done.

 AN EASTER MESSAGE **

Resurrection - Fact or Fiction?

Come on! surely you don't believe all that! I mean, if someone's died that's it. That's the kind of stuff that fairy tales are made of. You're telling me that 2,000 years ago a man died, was buried and was then seen walking around the place as if nothing had happened to him! Did you happen to see that flock of flying pigs swooping low over the Social Club the other day? ...

How many people saw him, did you say? THOUSANDS! What, not all at once;... you mean they saw him in many different places and at different times? Huh, conspiracy I reckon; they all got together and agreed to tell the same story ...

Well, no, I suppose you're right - it's not really a sensible explanation is it? But y'know the, em, thingmebobs ...

Yes, that's right, the disciples - well they all cleared off and left him on the night he was killed didn't they? Said they never knew him; especially, em ...

Yes, that's him - Peter. Running scared - THEY didn't believe in him ...

No ... you're having me on: you're saying that a few days later Peter was daft enough to tell a huge crowd of people that the man they just killed was not only God's Son, but that he'd been raised from the dead! They could have lynched him! ...

No, I don't suppose it could have been a ghost he saw - must have been the man himself to give him that kind of courage ...

Yes, that's RIGHT I suppose ... millions of believers over 2,000 years - they all believe it ... if it's a set up job it's pretty convincing! But you can't fool that many people can you? Do you suppose it really is true - Jesus really did come back from the dead ... ? But ... hm!
